

THE COLE BROTHERS' CIRCUS

Bigger, Better, Grander Than Ever.
Seven Hundred People and Five Hundred Horses. Fine Music.
Clowns, Bareback Riders &c

There is no show in this country where magnitude, merit and perfect organization are as evident as with the Cole Bros. World Toured Shows which will be here Friday, Sept. 17. It is like one large community, and a very expensive community, at that. It requires but a glance at some of the details and figures connected with this gigantic organization to be assured of these facts. The daily expenses are $3,500, and 3-4 of this amount is spent in the place of exhibition. The payroll contains over 700 employees and the stable has nearly 500 head of horses. Three trains of double length cars are required to convey it from place to place. Seven acres of land are required to spread its tents, which comfortably seat 10,000 people. Of course when seating capacity is spoken of, the mammoth menagerie tent, and the many other tents covering the other departments are not considered. Only the tent in which the performance is given. This show carries its own blacksmith shop, and has its own dining tents in which nearly 3,000 meals are served daily to its employees, has its own attorney, physician and three veterinary surgeons. It has a clerical force equal to that of any ordinary bank. The corps of detectives always in attendance is made up of men of national reputation and have had a world-wide experience in dealing with the light fingered gentry who have learned to give this show a wide berth. The menagerie contains over 100 members of the animal kingdom, selected for their rareness. There are over 100 feature acts given at each performance, and to give them over 500 men, women and animals are required. No matter what the condition of the weather may be, this show never disappoints. All the tents are absolutely water proof.

Ninth Regiment M. S. M. Cavalry

The tenth annual reunion of the 9th Missouri State Militia Cavalry was held at Moberly on Thursday and Friday, the 2nd and 3rd, with J. W. Stigall president, and T. B.
 Ross secretary. In the election of new officers, J. B. Clarkston, of Wellsville was chosen president; and Nathan Gibson, of Mineola, was made secretary. Wellsville was chosen for holding the next annual reunion. It is a matter of regret that of the fine body of men nearly 1200 strong who volunteer-in answer to the country's call in 1862, only a few answer to roll call at these reunions. An effort is to be made to secure a large attendance next year. The fact that many Montgomery County men were in this regiment as members of companies commanded by Chaplains Ben Sharp, D. N.

 Draper, and Campbell so that a larger response to roll call may be expected.
